Published by Authority.

From Saturday November 28, to Tuesday December 1, 1795.

By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION,

For granting the Distribution of Prizes taken from the Subjects of the United Provinces subsequent to the Fifteenth Day of September, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Ninety-five, the Date of His Majesty's Order in Council for granting General Reprizals against the Ships, Goods and Subjects of the said United Provinces.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS by Our Order in Council, dated the Fifteenth Day of September last, We have ordered that General Reprizals be granted against the Ships, Goods and Subjects of the United Provinces, so that as well Our Fleets and Ships, as also all other Ships and Vessels that shall be commissionated by Letters of Marque or General Reprizals, or otherwise, by Our Commissioners for executing Our Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, shall and may lawfully seize all Ships, Vessels and Goods belonging to the said United Provinces, or any Persons being Subjects thereof, or inhabiting within any of the Territories of the said United Provinces, and bring the same to Judgment in any of Our Courts of Admiralty within our Dominions; We, being desirous to give due Encouragement to all Our faithful Subjects, who may have lawfully seized any such Ships, Vessels or Goods, subsequent to the said Fifteenth Day of September last, or who shall hereafter seize any such Ships, Vessels or Goods, and having declared in Council Our Intentions concerning the Distribution of all Manner of Captures, Seizures, Prizes and Reprizals of all such Ships and Goods as aforesaid, which, subsequent to the said Fifteenth Day of September, 1795, have been, or hereafter, during the present Hostilities, shall be seized as aforesaid, do now make known to all Our loving Subjects, and all others whom it may concern, by this Our Proclamation, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, that Our Will and Pleasure is, that the neat Produce of all Prizes taken as aforesaid, subsequent to the said Fifteenth Day of September last, or which shall hereafter be taken as aforesaid, the Right whereof is inherent in Us and Our Crown, be given to the Takers, (save and except the Produce of such Prizes as are or shall be taken by Ships or Vessels belonging to Our Commissioners of Customs or Excise, the Disposition of which We reserve to Our further Pleasure) but subject to the Payment of all such or the like Customs and Duties as the same are now or would have been liable to if the same were or might have been imported as Merchandize; and that the same may be so given in the Proportion and Manner hereinafter set forth; that is to say, That all Prizes taken by Ships and Vessels having Commissions of Letters of Marque and Reprizals, (save and except such Prizes as are or shall be taken by the Ships or Vessels belonging to Our Commissioners aforesaid) may be sold and disposed poſed of by the Merchants, Owners, Fitters and others to whom ſuch Letters of Marque and Reprizals are granted, for their own Uſe and Benefit, after final Adjudication, and not before. And We do hereby further order and direct, that the neat Produce of all Prizes, which are or ſhall be taken as aforeſaid by any of Our Ships or Veſſels of War, ſhall be for the entire Benefit and Encouragement of Our Flag Officers, Captains, Commanders and other Commiſſioned Officers in Our Pay, and of the Seamen, Marines and Soldiers on Board Our ſaid Ships and Veſſels at the Time of the Capture, and that ſuch Prizes may be lawfully ſold and diſpoſed of by them and their Agents, after the ſame ſhall have been to Us finally adjudged lawful Prize, and not otherwiſe.

The Diſtribution ſhall be made as follows; the Whole of the neat Produce being firſt divided into Eight equal Parts.

The Captain or Captains of any of Our ſaid Ships or Veſſels of War, who ſhall be actually on Board at the Taking of any Prize, ſhall have Three Eighth Parts; but in caſe any ſuch Prize ſhall be taken by any of Our Ships or Veſſels of War under the Command of a Flag or Flags, the Flag Officer or Officers being actually on Board, or directing and aſſiſting in the Capture, ſhall have One of the ſaid Three Eighth Parts, the ſaid One Eighth Part to be paid to ſuch Flag or Flag Officers in ſuch Proportions and ſubject to ſuch Regulations as are hereinafter mentioned.

The Captains of Marines and Land Forces, Sea Lieutenants and Maſter on Board, ſhall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongſt them; but that every Phyſician appointed, or hereafter to be appointed, to a Fleet or Squadron of Our Ships of War, ſhall, in the Diſtribution of Prizes which are or ſhall be taken as aforeſaid by the Ships in which he ſhall ſerve, or in which ſuch Ship's Company ſhall be entitled to ſhare, be claſſed with the Sea Lieutenants with reſpect to the ſaid One Eighth Part, and be allowed to ſhare equally with them, provided ſuch Phyſician be actually on Board at the Time of taking ſuch Prizes.

The Lieutenants and Quarter-Maſters of Marines, and Lieutenants, Enſigns and Quarter-Maſters of Land Forces, Secretaries of Admirals or of Commodores, with Captains under them, Boatſwains, Gunners, Purſer, Carpenter, Maſters Mates, Chirurgeon, Pilot and Chaplain on Board, ſhall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongſt them.

The Midſhipmen, Captain's Clerk, Maſter-Sailmaker, Carpenter's Mates, Boatſwains Mates, Gunner's Mates, Maſter at Arms, Corporals, Yeomen of the Sheets, Cockſwain, Quarter-Maſters, Quarter-Maſters Mates, Chirurgeon's Mates, Yeomen of the Powder-Room, Serjeants of Marines and Land Forces on Board, ſhall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongſt them.

The Trumpeters, Quarter-Gunners, Carpenter's Crew, Stewards, Cook, Armourer, Steward's Mate, Cook's Mate, Gunſmith, Cooper, Swabber, Ordinary Trumpeter, Barber, Able Seamen, Ordinary Seamen, and Marines, and other Soldiers, and all other Perſons doing Duty and aſſiſting on Board, ſhall have Two Eighth Parts, to be equally divided amongſt them.

Provided that if any Officer being on Board any of our Ships of War at the Time of taking any Prize ſhall have more Commiſſions or Offices than one, ſuch Officer ſhall be entitled only to the Share or Shares of the Prizes, which, according to the above mentioned Diſtribution, ſhall belong to his ſuperior Commiſſion or Office. And We do hereby ſtrictly enjoin all Commanders of Our Ships and Veſſels of War taking any Prize, as ſoon as may be, to tranſmit, or cauſe to be tranſmitted, to the Commiſſioners of Our Navy, a true Liſt of the Names of all the Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers and others who were actually on Board Our Ships and Veſſels of War under their Command at the Time of the Capture; which Liſt ſhall contain the Quality of the Service of each Perſon on Board, and be ſubſcribed by the Captain or Commanding Officer, and Three or more of the Chief Officers on Board. And We do hereby require and direct the Commiſſioners of Our Navy, or any Three or more of them, to examine, or cauſe to be examined, ſuch Liſts by the Muſter Books of ſuch Ships and Veſſels of War, and Liſts annexed thereto, to ſee that ſuch Liſts do agree with the ſaid Muſter Books and annexed Liſts, as to the Names, Qualities, or Ratings of the Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers and others belonging to ſuch Ships and Veſſels of War, and, upon Requeſt, forthwith to grant a Certificate of the Truth of any Liſt tranſmitted to them, to the Agents nominated and appointed by the Captors to take Care and diſpoſe of ſuch Prize; and alſo, upon Application to them, (the ſaid Commiſſioners) they ſhall give or cauſe to be given to the ſaid Agents all ſuch Liſts from the Muſter Books of any ſuch Ships of War, and annexed Liſts, as the ſaid Agents ſhall find requiſite for their Direction in paying the Produce of ſuch Prizes, and otherwiſe ſhall be aiding and aſſiſting to the ſaid Agents in all ſuch Matters as ſhall be neceſſary. We do hereby further will and direct, that the following Regulations ſhall be obſerved concerning the One Eighth Part herein before mentioned to be granted to the Flag or Flag Officers, who ſhall actually be on Board at the taking of any Prize, or ſhall be directing or aſſiſting therein: Firſt, That a Flag Officer, Commander in Chief, when there is but One Flag Officer upon Service, ſhall have to his own Uſe the ſaid One Eighth Part of the Prizes taken by Ships and Veſſels under his Command: Secondly, That a Flag Officer, ſent to command at Jamaica or elſewhere, ſhall have no Right to any Share of Prizes taken by Ships or Veſſels employed there before he arrives at the Place to which he is ſent, and actually takes upon him the Command. Thirdly, That when an inferior Flag Officer is ſent out to reinforce a ſuperior Flag Officer, at Jamaica or elſewhere, the ſuperior Flag Officer ſhall have no Right to any Share of Prizes taken by the inferior Flag Officer, before the inferior Flag Officer ſhall arrive within the Limits of the Command of the ſuperior Flag Officer, and actually receive ſome Order from him. Fourthly, That a chief Flag Officer returning Home, from Jamaica or elſewhere, ſhall have no Share of the Prizes taken by the Ships or Veſſels left behind to act under another Command. Fifthly, That if a Flag Officer is ſent to command in the Out-Ports of this Kingdom, he ſhall have no Share of the Prizes taken by Ships or Veſſels which have ſailed from that Port by Order from the Admiralty. Sixthly, That when more Flag-Officers than One ſerve together, the Eighth Part of the Prizes taken by any Ships or Veſſels of the Fleet or Squadron, ſhall be divided in the following Proportions, viz. If there be but Two Flag Officers, the Chief ſhall have Two Third Parts of the ſaid One Eighth Part, and the other ſhall have the remaining Third Part; but if the Number of Flag Officers be more than Two, the Chief ſhall have only One Half, and the other Half ſhall be equally divided amongſt the other Flag Officers. Seventhly, That Commodores with Captains under them ſhall be eſteemed as Flag Officers with reſpect to the Eighth Part of Prizes taken, whether commanding in Chief or ſerving under Command. Eighthly, That the Firſt Captain to the Admiral and Commander in Chief of Our Fleet, and alſo the Firſt Captain to Our Flag Officer appointed, or hereafter to be appointed, to command a Fleet or Squadron of Twenty Ships of the Line of Battle, and alſo the Firſt Captain to Our Flag Officer appointed, or hereafter to be appointed, to command a Fleet or Squadron of Fifteen Ships of the Line of Batt (provided ſuch laſt mentioned Fleet or Squadron ſhall be compoſed of His Majeſty's own Ships,) ſhall be deemed and taken to be a Flag Officer, and ſhall be intitled to a Part or Share of Prizes as the Junior Flag Officer of ſuch Fleet or Squadron. And We do hereby further order, That in caſe of Cutters, Schooners, and other armed Veſſels commanded by Lieutenants, the Share of ſuch Lieutenants ſhall be Three Eighth Parts of the Prize, unleſs ſuch Lieutenants ſhall be under the Command of a Flag Officer or Officers; in which Caſe the Flag Officer or Officers ſhall have One of the ſaid Three Eighths, to be divided among ſuch Flag Officer or Officers, in the Manner herein before directed, in the Caſe of Captains ſerving under Flag Officers. Secondly, We direct that the Share of the Maſter, or other Perſon acting as Second in Command, and the Pilot, (if there happens to be One on Board,) ſhall be One Eighth Part, to be divided into Three equal Parts, of which Two Thirds ſhall go to the Maſter or other Perſon acting as Second in Command, and the remaining One Third to the Pilot; but if there is no Pilot, then ſuch Eighth Part to go wholly to the Maſter or Perſon acting as Second in Command. That the Share of the Chirurgeon, or Chirurgeon's Mate (where there is no Chirurgeon,) Midſhipmen, and Clerk and Steward, ſhall be One Eighth; that the Share of the Boatſwain's, Gunner's, and Carpenter's Mates, Yeomen of the Sheets, Sailmaker, Quarter-Maſter, and Quarter-Maſter's Mate, ſhall be One Eighth; and the Share of the Seamen, Marines, and other Perſons on Board, aſſiſting in the Capture, ſhall be Two Eighth Parts. But it is Our Intention, nevertheleſs, that the above Diſtribution ſhall only extend to ſuch Captures as ſhall be made by any Cutter, Schooner, or Armed Veſſel, without any of His Majeſty's Ships or Veſſels of War being preſent or within Sight of, and adding to the Encouragement of the Captors, and Terror of the Enemy: But in caſe any of His Majeſty's Ships or Veſſels of War ſhall be preſent, or in Sight, that then the Officers, Pilots, Petty Officers, and Men on Board ſuch Cutters and Schooners, or Armed Veſſels, ſhall ſhare in the ſame Proportion as is allowed to Perſons of the like Rank and Denomination on Board His Majeſty's Ships and Veſſels of War.

Produce

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Twenty-fifth Day of November, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-five, and in the Thirty-ſixth Year of Our Reign.

GOD ſave the KING.

St. James's, December 1.

THE following Addreſſes have been preſented to the King; which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Huntingdon.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Huntingdon, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty at this critical Juncture, and to join the general Voice of your loving Subjects in expreſſing our ſincere Congratulations on your providential Eſcape from the late moſt daring and flagitious Attack on your Royal Perſon, and alſo to teſtify our Indignation and Abhorrence againſt the ſeditious Authors and Abettors of this horrid Outrage.

We humbly hope, that by a vigorous Exertion of legal Authority, the Guilty may be brought to ſpeedy and condign Puniſhment, in order to prevent a Repetition of ſuch atrocious Attacks, which ſtrike at once againſt the King and Conſtitution.

With Hearts full of Gratitude for the many Bleſſings we enjoy under the mild and auſpicious Reign of your Majeſty, we feel the warmeſt Attachments of Duty and Loyalty to your ſacred Perſon, as well as the firmeſt Determination to ſupport and maintain our excellent Conſtitution, as by Law eſtabliſhed.

Your Majeſty having ever ſhewn yourſelf the ſteady Guardian of our Rights, civil and religious, our moſt earneſt Prayers are offered to the Supreme Being, that your Majeſty's ſacred and valuable Life may be long preſerved for the Happineſs and Proſperity of your People.

Signed, at the unanimous Requeſt of the Meeting,

MANCHESTER, Chairman.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of His Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for the Liberties of the Tower of London, in Seſſions aſſembled.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Juſtices of the Peace for the ſaid Liberties, deeply impreſſed with great Concern to find that the Minds of any of your Majeſty's Subjects ſhould be ſo perverted from their Duty, and ſo forgetful of thoſe Virtues which adorn your Royal Perſon, to become ſo deſperately infatuated as to commit the late atrocious Outrage againſt your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, in going to and returning from your Parliament.

We beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your Eſcape from an Attempt ſo criminally malignant, by which the invaluable Conſtitution of this Country was endangered; and to aſſure your Majeſty that as Magiſtrates we will be vigilant and active to curb and ſuppreſs thoſe dangerous and ſeditious Spirits, whoſe ſole Wiſh is to poiſon the Minds of thoſe who have a proper Senſe of the Bleſſings of your Government, and hope to proſper in their nefarious Deſigns of introducing Anarchy and Confuſion.

And being fully convinced that thoſe Deſigns are as manifeſt as they are wicked, we, at this momentous Criſis, firmly rely upon the Wiſdom of Parliament for enacting ſuch Laws as will tend to ſecure your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and preſerve the Peace, Happineſs, and Safety of the Country.

Signed, by Order of the Court,

Dan. Williams, Chairman.

[Preſented by Daniel Williams, Eſq; Chairman of the Seſſions for the ſaid Liberties.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats and Common Councilmen of the Town and Port of Dovor, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats and Common Councilmen of the Town and Port of Dovor, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your late providential Eſcape from the daring Attack on your Majeſty's Perſon, and to expreſs our Horror and Abhorrence againſt the Authors and Inſtigators of ſo violent an Outrage.

Experiencing the Bleſſings which our happy Conſtitution affords, and impreſſed with a deep Senſe of your Majeſty's numerous and exalted Virtues, and of that paternal Regard which your Majeſty has unceaſingly ſhewn for the Welfare and Happineſs of your Subjects, we cannot reflect on this atrocious Attempt without being filled with Sorrow and Aſtoniſhment that Perſons could be found in this Kingdom ſo depraved and loſt to every Sentiment of Religion and Allegiance as to be capable of committing it.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our ſteady and unſhaken Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, and to the preſent Form of Government; and it is our fervent Prayer, that the Divine Providence may ſhield your Majeſty from the Attacks of ſecret and open Enemies, and long preſerve your Majeſty's Life, to reign over a free, loyal, and grateful People.

Given under our Common Seal the 16th Day of November, in the Thirty-ſixth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

[Preſented by Thomas Mantell, Eſq; accompanied by John Trevanion and Charles Small Pybus, Eſqrs. Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Town and Port.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Corps of Volunteers of the Borough of Leeds,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Corps of Volunteers of the Borough of Leeds, beg Leave to offer our ſincere Congratulations on your late providential Eſcape from the malicious Attempts of a Band of Miſcreants, and to expreſs our Horror and Deteſtation of the Principles which could excite or encourage ſo wicked and deſperate an Attack.

Enrolled under your Majeſty's Sanction and Commiſſion, for the Defence of our happy Conſtitution and it's Laws, we conſider ourſelves pledged to watch, with a jealous Eye, every Attempt to ſubvert them; and we cannot but view the late atrocious Inſult offered to your ſacred Perſon, when going pro-feſſedly to conſult with the other Branches of the Legiſlature for the publick Welfare, as a Blow aimed at the Conſtitution itſelf, which we have ſworn to defend.

Permit us therefore, Sire, under the Impulſe of an an ardent Affection for your Royal Virtues, a reſpectful Gratitude for your gracious Government, and a zealous Attachment to our rational and legal Freedom, known only unto Britiſh Subjects, thus to declare our firm and united Reſolution to ſupport (to the utmoſt of our Abilities) your Majeſty's Perſon, Crown and Dignity, to aſſiſt the Civil Power in the Execution of their Offices derived from your Authority ,and to protect our Fellow Subjects in the peaceable Enjoyment of their Properties and deareſt Rights from the Machinations of the Seditious, the Rapine of the Lawleſs, and the Outrage of the Licentious.

Signed at the unanimous Requeſt of the Corps.

Thomas Lloyd, Lieutenant-Colonel Commandant.

[Preſented by Henry Duncombe and William Wilberforce, Eſqrs. Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of York.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Freemen and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Helſton, beg Leave to approach the Throne, and humbly to offer warmeſt and moſt ſincere Congratulations upon your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the horrid and atrocious Attack made upon your ſacred Perſon by wicked and ſeditious Men, whoſe Deſigns have been moſt happily fruſtrated by that Almighty Power, which we truſt will continue to be your Majeſty's Defence and Support againſt all your open and ſecret Enemies.

Given under the Common Seal of the ſaid Borough, at the Guildhall, the 14th Day of November, 1795.

[Preſented by Charles Abbot, Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The Addreſs of the Alderman, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants in general of your Majeſty's ancient Town and Corporation of Wokingham.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, the Alderman, Burgeſſes and other Inhabitants of your ancient Town and Corporation of Wokingham, beg Leave to tender to your Majeſty our moſt ſincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your recent Eſcape from the traitorous and villainous Attack made on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, a Circumſtance we look to with the greateſt Abhorrence and Indignation.

Permit us to aſſure you, moſt gracious Sire, of our moſt faithful Attachment to your Royal Perſon, that we ſhall be ever attentive, with our utmoſt Vigilance and Exertions, to preſerve and defend it, and to ſupport and maintain inviolate that noble Edifice our Conſtitution, reared by the Wiſdom and Perſeverance of our Anceſtors, and now the Pride and Boaſt of every true Engliſhman; and any Attempt that may be made to ſubvert or overturn it we are determined to diſcountenance and reſiſt to the laſt Extremity.

[Preſented by R. A. Neville, Eſq; High Steward of the ſaid Corporation.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of your Majeſty's Town and Pariſh of Falmouth, in the County of Cornwall.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of your Majeſty's Town and Pariſh of Falmouth, impreſſed with a due Senſe of the Bleſſings we, in common with our Fellow Subjects, enjoy from the juſt and admirable Conſtitution and Laws of this Kingdom, and from your Majeſty's mild and indulgent Adminiſtration thereof, beg Leave to approach the Throne, to expreſs our Abhorrence of the recent wicked Attempt made upon the Perſon of your Majeſty, with a Deſign to terminate, by one dreadful Act of the blackeſt Turpitude, not only your Majeſty's moſt valuable Life, ever dear to all true Engliſhmen, but that Conſtitution and thoſe Laws, the Reſult of the Wiſdom of Ages, by which we and our Forefathers have been ſo long happily governed, and which have made us the Envy and the Admiration of the World.

We trace this infamous Attempt to the Induſtry with which Doctrines of the moſt ſeditious Narure are publicly diſſeminated, calculated to diſſatisfy the Minds of the People with the Laws of their Country, and to ſtir them up to Acts of Treaſon and Rebellion. We therefore truſt that effectual Meaſures will be ſpeedily taken for enforcing the exiſting Laws againſt Practices of ſuch a dreadful Tendency, and in caſe they ſhall not be ſufficient, that Laws may be enacted for the Prevention of this public Evil, and for the Protection of your Majeſty's Royal Perſon.

Permit us, Sire, to renew our moſt ſolemn Aſſurances of Loyalty and Affection to your Majeſty, and our fixed Determination to ſupport, by every Means in our Power, your Majeſty's Perſon and the glorious Conſtitution of this Kingdom, as by Law eſtabliſhed. And we earneſtly hope, from the Union of all good Men in this Sentiment, that the Anarchy, Confuſion and Deſtruction of Property (ſo evidently the Wiſh of the ſeditious Perſons who have excited this Attempt) will, by the Bleſſing of God, be fruſtrated.

We implore the Divine Providence to protect your Majeſty againſt all Attempts of your Enemies, and to preſerve you for many Years to reign over us, and to remain a Pattern of Virtue and Goodneſs both in public and private Life.

By Order of the Meeting,

James Tippett, Town-Clerk.

[Preſented by Sir John Wodehouſe, Bart. Recorder.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

SIRE,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood Lancaſter, beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon with Sentiments of the ſincereſt Reſpect and Attachment, tachment, to preſent our heartfelt Congratulations on your Majeſty's Eſcape from the premeditated Attack of a lawleſs Faction, when you were proceeding to exerciſe a moſt eſſential Part of your Prerogative, the Meeting of your Parliament, and to expreſs our utter Deteſtation of the Principles that actuated theſe miſguided People to offer ſuch a treaſonous Indignity to your ſacred Perſon,

We alſo beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that, as it is our bounden Duty, ſo it is our Inclination, to uſe the beſt Means in our Power to repreſs that daring innovating Spirit, whoſe Object is the Overthrow of our happy Conſtitution, the Introduction of Anarchy, and the Subverſion of all regular Government.

That this Kingdom may be bleſſed by a long Continuance of your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Reign, is the ſincere Wiſh and ardent Prayer of your Ma- Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

[Preſented by Sir George Warren, K. B. and John Dent, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Servants, the Inhabitants of your ancient and loyal Borough of Goſport and Pariſh of Alverſtoke, do moſt humbly preſume to offer our Tribute of Congratulation on your Majeſty's late providential Deliverance from the Hands of a deſperate Banditti of Aſſaſſins.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty that we view with peculiar Horror and Deteſtation the Inſults which have been offered to your Royal Perſon, and that we will on all Occaſions exert our utmoſt Endeavours to ſupport your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, and to defend your ſacred Perſon againſt all thoſe who dare to weaken the Foundations of the one, or to hurt or injure the other.

Moſt humbly adoring the Goodneſs of Almighty God in graciouſly reſcuing your Majeſty's Perſon from Blood-thirſty Hands, and admiring the Wiſdom of Legiſlature in taking ſuch Meaſures for the Protection of your Majeſty in future as thoſe wherein both Houſes of Parliament are now engaged, we beg Leave to lay ourſelves, with all Humility, at your Majeſty's Feet, as your dutiful and loyal Subjects.

[Preſented by Thomas Curry, Eſq; one of His Majeſty's Juſtices of Peace for the ſaid County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Portreeves, Clergy, Freeholders, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Aſhburton, whoſe Names are under written.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Portreeves, Clergy, Freeholders, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Aſhburton, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your late happy Deliverance, under Divine Providence, from the malicious Deſigns of Aſſaſſins againſt your Majeſty's Perſon.

The late unprincipled and ſeditious Meetings, to which may be imputed the recent Attempt againſt your Majeſty's Life, call upon us to give your Majeſty the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of our Fidelity and Allegiance, and of our inviolable Attachment to the preſent Government, as eſtabliſhed by Law in theſe Kingdoms.

That your Government ſhould at any Time be diſturbed by thoſe who are protected by it gives us great Concern, but particularly at this Conjuncture when we are at War with France, that ſome of your Majeſty's Subjects ſhould have concerted ſuch a diabolical Scheme in order to involve their native Country in Anarchy and Confuſion, with a View to deſtroy Britiſh Liberty, fills us with Horror, and we want Words ſufficiently to expreſs our Deteſtation of it.

For ourſelves we humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty that, with the utmoſt Abhorrence of ſuch rebellious Behaviour, and with the warmeſt Zeal for our holy Religion, we ſhall moſt affectionately join with our loyal Fellow Subjects in Defence of your ſacred Perſon and Government, and are determined to accompany them in their moſt vigorous Efforts for the Support and Protection of their Liberty and Country, and to ſuppreſs all unlawful and ſeditious Meetings, calculated only to introduce Anarchy and Confuſion, and ſubvert all Order and Government.

Permit us alſo to return your Majeſty our moſt grateful Thanks for your Intention to effect a general Peace whenever the Situation of Things in France ſhall afford reaſonable Ground to hope for Security and Permanency of the Bleſſings attendant on ſuch a Meaſure.

Given under our Hands, at the Chapel of St. Lawrence, within the ſaid Borough, this 11th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

[Preſented by Robert Mackreth, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiff, Burgeſſes, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Chippenham, in the County of Wilts.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to addreſs your Majeſty for the Purpoſe of expreſſing our utter Deteſtation and Abhorrenee at the very daring and outrageous Attack made upon your Majeſty's Royal Perſon in going to and returning from opening the preſent Seſſion of Parliament.

We aſſure your Majeſty that we will at all Times be ready to ſupport your Majeſty againſt all Attempts that ſhall be made againſt your Perſon, Crown, and Dignity, and heartily give our Support to any Meaſure that ſhall be adopted for the better Security thereof.

With ſincere Happineſs we obſerve that Part of your Majeſty's moſt gracious Speech in which you mention your Intention of taking the earlieſt Opportunity of negociating for Peace as ſoon as there is a Proſpect of its being permanent and honourable. That the ſame may be ſpeedily accompliſhed is the ſincere and hearty Prayer of your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects.

[Preſented by George Fludyer and James Dawkins, Eſqrs. Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, the Recorder, the Aldermen, and Common Council of your ancient Borough of Doncaſter, beg Leave to offer our warmeſt Congratulations to your Majeſty on your late happy Eſcape from the wicked and atrocious Attack made upon your Royal Perſon, by a Set of daring, deluded and unprincipled Men, when your Majeſty was going to perform one principal Part of your Regal Office, that of Opening the preſent Seſſions of Parliament.

We are truly ſenſible of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and juſt Government; and we moſt humbly beſeech the Giver of all Good to extend to your Majeſty his Protection, and to grant you a long and happy Reign, and to your People the Continuance of thoſe Bleſſings they now enjoy under our moſt excellent Conſtitution; and that He will be pleaſed to guard this Land from the Deſigns of the Factious, and from the Evils ever attendant on Political Licentiouſneſs.

Given under our Common Seal, this 19th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord, 1795.

[Preſented by Henry Duncombe and William Wilberforce, Eſqrs. Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of York.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the Borough of Pembroke.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the Borough of Pembroke, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our warmeſt Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the late daring Attack made on your ſacred Perſon, and at the ſame Time to expreſs our Indignation and Abhorrence at ſo outrageous an Offence; and we earneſtly hope that the Steps that have been taken will be the Means of detecting and bringing to Puniſhment the Perſons concerned in ſo criminal an Act.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Alderman, Comburgeſſes, Burgeſſes, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of your Majeſty's Borough of Grantham in the County of Lincoln, and others reſiding in the Vicinity of the ſaid Borough, beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon with Sentiments full of Abhorrence of the alarming Attack made upon the Life of your Majeſty and upon our happy Conſtitution, in your Approach to the Houſes of Parliament, for the Exerciſe of the moſt ſacred Office of the Crown of theſe Kingdoms; and, amidſt the general Voice of your People, we deſire to join our own moſt hearty Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Deliverance from the horrid Attempt on both.

We are deeply ſenſible of the peculiar Bleſſings with which Divine Providence hath long favoured this Nation above all others in the Enjoyment of civil and religious Liberty, and of the Continuance of thoſe Bleſſings under your Majeſty inviolate; and therefore we deſire to expreſs our thankful Acknowledgments of that ſalutary Proviſion which your Majeſty, in your Wiſdom and paternal Care of your People, has made againſt the growing Evils with which the late ſeditious Aſſemblies threatened the Peace of Government and the Happineſs of all; and to aſſure your Majeſty of our ardent Prayers, that the ſame Providence which has delivered your Royal Perſon from open Violence may protect your Majeſty from all ſecret Conſpiracies, and for your long and proſperous Reign over a free and happy People.

[Preſented by George Sutton and Simon Yorke, Eſqrs. Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, of the Borough of King's Lynn, in the County of Norfolk, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the Borough of King's Lynn in the County of Norfolk, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with Sentiments of Horror and Indignation at the late moſt atrocious Attack on your Majeſty's Royal Perſon.

Whilſt, as loyal Subjects to your Majeſty and ſincere Friends to our Country, we congratulate both on your providential and happy Eſcape from perſonal Injury, we earneſtly hope your Majeſty will ſucceed in procuring for us the Bleſſings of Peace, eſſential, in our humble Opinion, to the Happineſs and Proſperity of this Kingdom, and the Permanence of our moſt excellent Conſtitution.

Given under our Common Seal, at our Guildhall, this 18th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

[Preſented by the Honorable Horatio Walpole, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Porteſmouth.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Porteſmouth, beg Leave to preſent to your Majeſty our cordial Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the daring and wicked Attack lately made on your moſt ſacred Perſon; and it is our anxious Hope that a due Exertion of the Laws will bring the Offenders to condign Puniſhment.

To the Conſtitution of our Country, and to the Perſon of your Majeſty and your Royal Family, we beg Permiſſion to aſſure your Majeſty of our warm and ſincere Attachment.

Our earneſt and conſtant Prayer ſhall be, that the ſame Providence which has hitherto baffled all Attempts againſt your Majeſty's Perſon may continue to be your ſure Protection through a long and happy Reign.

[Preſented by the Mayor and the Recorder, accompanied by Sir Harry Fetherſtonhaugh, Bart. and the Hon. Thomas Erſkine, Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Alderman, Recorder, Coroner, Aſſiſtant Juſtices, Capital Burgeſſes and Burgeſſes of the Common Council of the ancient Borough of Bury St. Edmunds, in the County of Suffolk, eſteem it an indiſpenſable Duty to expreſs our Abhorrence of the daring Outrage lately offered to your Majeſty's Perſon; to teſtify our Joy on your providential Eſcape, and our ardent Hopes that your Majeſty's Reign may be long and proſperous.

Deeply impreſſed with a Senſe of the Beneſits which we have reaped under your Majeſty's Reign, we will earneſtly endeavour to promote and enforce Obedience to the Laws, from a thorough Conviction that a ſtrict Obſervance of them can alone ſecure and perpetuate the Welfare of your Majeſty's affectionate People, and we rely upon your Majeſty's well known Benevolence in procuring the Bleſſings of Peace, whenever it can be obtained with Honour to your Crown and Safety your Kingdoms.

Given under the Seal of the Borough, this 19th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord. 1795.

Joſeph Maulkin, Alderman.

[Preſented by the Right Hon. Charles Fitzroy, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Bailiffs, the Corporation, and the Inhabitants of the Town of Ludlow, under the deepeſt Impreſſions of Deteſtation and Horror at the late atrocious and traiterous Attempt of a daring Aſſaſſin, beg Leave to approach your ſacred Perſon with our ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape; at the ſame Time to aſſure your Majeſty of our ſtrong and cordial Attachment to your Perſon and Government, and of our determined Reſolution, at the Riſk of every Thing we hold dear, to protect our preſent happy Conſtitution, ſo wiſely adapted to all the Exigencies of State, in it's utmoſt Purity; that we will, in our ſeveral Stations, as much as in us lies, ſuppreſs all treaſonable and ſeditious Aſſemblies, and be ever ready to ſupport the Civil Power in the Preſervation of the Public Peace. That your Majeſty's Reign over a loyal and affectionate People may be long and proſperous, and that the Divine Diſpoſer of all Human Events may graciouſly continue that Protection He has hitherto eminently vouchſafed to your Royal Perſon, are our ſincere and ardent Prayers.

Signed, by Order of the Meeting,

Tho. Owen, Edw. Baugh, } Bailiffs.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, being Inhabitants of the Town of Selby and the Places adjacent, beg Leave to approach you, Sire, with our moſt humble Addreſs and Congratulations on your ſacred Perſon having been ſo providentially preſerved from the Inſults and Dangers offered by the Hands of the moſt wicked and daring Aſſaſſins, in which Eſcape we feel not only for ourſelves, but for the Peace and Happineſs of all your Majeſty's Subjects, the greateſt Satisfaction. And it is with the deepeſt Concern we obſerve that there are any of your Majeſty's Subjects ſo wicked as to make ſuch horrid Attempts; but it can only be attributed to the evil Tendency of thoſe Clubs and irregular Societies, ſo evidently calculated to diſturb the Peace of your People. Convinced as we are of the Bleſſings we enjoy under the preſent mild and benignant Reign, it gives us infinite Pleaſure to take this Opportunity of manifeſting our Loyalty and Attachment to your Majeſty, and our firm Determination to ſupport that Government, which has made this Kingdom the Admiration of all the World.

Done at Selby the 7th Day of November, 1795.

[Preſented by Henry Duncombe and William Wilberforce, Eſqrs. Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of York.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiff, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Whitchurch, moſt humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our moſt ſincere and hearty Congratulations on your Majeſty's Eſcape from the late moſt flagitious Attempt upon your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon.

We wiſh to expreſs our Abhorrence of the outrageous Inſults offered to a Sovereign, from whoſe mild and beneficent Government we, in common with our Fellow Subjects, have received ſo many Bleſſings, during ſo conſiderable a Number of Years.

At the ſame Time we cannot but declare our Aſtoniſhment that any Arts ſhould ſeduce any Portion of your Majeſty's Subjects, however ſmall, from the Duty which they owe to your Majeſty, by Law not more than by Gratitude, for your Majeſty's paternal Care and Tenderneſs.

It is our moſt earneſt Wiſh and Prayer, that ſuch Meaſures may be taken as may prevent the Repetition of Crimes ſo dangerous to the Peace and Happineſs of this Country, and that your faithful Subjects may be effectually ſecured from the Calamities which muſt inevitably enſue from the Perpetration of ſo horrid a Crime.

Given under the Common Seal of the ſaid Borough this 19th Day of November, in the Thirty-ſixth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

[Preſented by the Right Hon. Lord Viſcount Middleton, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, Gentlemen, Clergy and Inhabitants of the Borough of Stamford, in the County of Lincoln; and of the Gentlemen, Clergy and Inhabitants of Stamford Baron, in the County of Northampton.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, Gentlemen Clergy, and Inhabitants of Stamford aforeſaid, and, alſo, the Gentlemen, Clergy and Inhabitants of Stamford Baron aforeſaid, beg Leave thus to approach your Majeſty with warmeſt Congratulations on your providential Eſcape in your Paſſage to and from your Parliament: And we further beg to aſſure your Majeſty of our Abhorrence of of the evil Principles from which the very daring and atrocious Attempts proceeded, and of our Thankfulneſs to the Great Diſpoſer of Events for the Preſervation of a Life ſo dear to all good Subjects, and ſo eſſential to the Welfare and Proſperity of theſe Kingdoms.

Given at the Town-Hall of the ſaid Borough, under Common Seal, the 16th Day of November, 1795.

Joſeph Robinſon, Mayor.
EXETER, Recorder.

[Preſented by the Earl of Carysfort, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Lyme Regis, in the County of Dorſet, beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our moſt hearty Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the late audacious and wicked Attempt againſt your Royal Perſon, and to expreſs our utmoſt Indignation and Abhorrence at ſuch atrocious Conduct.

We moſt ardently hope that the execrable Agents and Abettors of this horrid Deſign may be diſcovered, and brought to condign Puniſhment; and that your Majeſty, preſerved from the Attacks of foreign Enemies and domeſtick Traitors, may long continue to reign over a loyal and grareful People.

Signed on Behalf of the Meeting, by William Daniel, Mayor.

[Preſented by the Hon. Thomas Fane, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Faverſham in the County of Kent, beg Leave to offer our moſt unfeigned Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy Eſcape from the wicked Attempt lately made upon your Majeſty's Royal Perſon; and whilſt we declare our Abhorrence at the Flagitiouſneſs of the Act itſelf, we cannot but expreſs our Aſtoniſhment that there ſhould be found a Deſcription of Perſons, however few in Number, capable of conceiving ſo horrid a Deſign againſt your Majeſty, whoſe private Virtues demand the utmoſt Veneration, and whoſe public Actions, as the Father of your People, call for the warmeſt Tribute of Affection.

That a Crime of this Nature ſhould have exiſted, we can attribute only to the ſeditious and inflammatory Doctrines but too ſucceſsfully propagated among us by thoſe violent Spirits, who, having no Hopes of accompliſhing their Purpoſes of Ambition and Self-Intereſt but by the Introduction of Anarchy and Confuſion, deemed it expedient to deſtroy the Protector of our Laws and Liberties, in order to eſtabliſh their own Power and Conſequence on the Ruin of all that is dear to us.

The Safety of your Majeſty including in it the Support of thoſe Laws and Liberties, and the Protection of our Lives and Property, we have the ſtrongeſt Motives to return our moſt grateful Thanks to the Great Diſpoſer of Events for the gracious Interference of His Providence, ſo often manifeſted in the Preſervation of your Majeſty's Life from the various Dangers it hath experienced.

May that Life long be continued to us, and Loyalty to your Majeſty's juſt and equitable Government be the Pride, as it is the Duty, of every true Lover of our ineſtimable Conſtitution.

[Preſented by Sir Edward Knatchbull, Bart. one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of Kent.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Banbury.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Banbury aforeſaid, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, viewing with the utmoſt Abhorrence the late traiterous Attempt againſt your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, cannot but expreſs our ſincereſt Satisfaction at its Failure; and at the ſame Time we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our firm Reſolution to ſupport our excellent Conſtitution againſt all its Enemies.

Done at a Common Hall, held the 18th Day of November, 1795.

[Preſented by William Holbech, Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Portreeve, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the ancient and loyal Corporation of Swanſea, beg to approach your Majeſty with our ſincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your happy Eſcape from the dangerous Attack made on your ſacred Perſon, when going to diſcharge one of the moſt important Duties of your exalted Station, in meeting your Parliament.

We cannot ſufficiently lament the imminent Danger which the beſt of Sovereigns hath been expoſed to from the Heinouſneſs of the Attempt; and we conſider the Outrage ſo offered to an eſſential and the moſt dignified Part of the Conſtitution, as proceeding from a direct and manifeſt Intention of the Perpetrators of it, to deſtroy that noble Fabrick, the Work of Ages, and under which theſe Kingdoms have flouriſhed, in unexampled Happineſs and Proſperity, the Envy of ſurrounding Nations.

The Bleſſing of Peace which your Majeſty hath been pleaſed to hold out from the Throne, affords us an additional Cauſe of Gratitude to thoſe we have already felt, for the anxious and paternal Solicitude, and the unwearied Endeavours your Majeſty hath conſtantly beſtowed, in ſeeking the Honour and Welfare of your People on every Occaſion; and until that deſirable Object can be obtained with Dignity to your Crown, and Security to theſe Realms, your Majeſty will not find us the moſt backward amongſt our Fellow Subjects to hazard every Thing that is dear to us in ſupporting the Means of effecting it.

By Order of the Common Hall,
G. Powell, Portreeve.

November 12, 1795.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Town Council of Montroſe, in Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Town Council of Montroſe, beg Leave to expreſs our Concern at the late daring Attack on your Majeſty's Perſon.

With our Acknowledgements to Divine Providence for your Majeſty's Eſcape from perſonal Injury, we muſt expreſs our Confidence in the Wiſdom of Parliament that ſuch Meaſures will be adopted as may put a Stop to the Growth of thoſe Principles which lead to the Commiſſion of ſuch illegal and atrocious Acts.

Signed and ſealed by our Appointment, the 17th Day of November, 1795.

Tho. Webſter, Provoſt.

[Preſented by Alexander Allardyce, Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament for Aberdeen, Montroſe, &c.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Free Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Maldon, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our warmeſt Congratulations on your providential Eſcape from the wicked Attempts againſt your Majeſty's Life, and the Indignity offered to your Royal Perſon in your Paſſage to and from Parliament at the Opening of the preſent Seſſions.

We feel with deep Concern and juſt Reſentment that there ſhauld be found among your Majeſty's Subjects Men ſo wicked and ſo abandoned to offer Violence to a Sovereign, whoſe only Wiſh and Endeavour through his whole Reign has been to make his People proſperous and happy.

We pray that your Majeſty may long reign over us, and we pledge ourſelves at all Times with Zeal and Firmneſs to defend your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, and to ſupport our happy Conſtitution againſt all traitorous and ſeditious Perſons whoſoever.

Town Hall, November 23, 1795.

[Preſented by Lieutenant-Colonel Strutt and Charles Callis Weſtern, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Council of the Borough of New Galloway, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our warmeſt Congratulations on your Safety and Preſervation from the daring and atrocious Attack on your Perſon; an Attempt, againſt which we feel the utmoſt Abhorrence and Indignation, being evidently levelled at the Subverſion of our preſent happy Conſtitution and Government, from it's Commiſſion whilſt in the Exerciſe of your Royal Function, in meeting with the Two other Branches of the Legiſlature in Parliament,

As we cannot entertain a Doubt that the Proceedings of ſeditious and tumultuous Meetings have been inſtrumental in inflaming and corrupting the Minds of certain of your Majeſty's Subjects, and preparing them for the Attempt, we truſt ſuch Meaſures will be adopted as Parliament ſhall deem neceſſary for the Suppreſſion of theſe Meetings.

That your Majeſty's Government, ſo uniformly mild in every Part of it's Adminiſtration, may long continue inviolable, and your Majeſty long live as the Father of your People, is our moſt earneſt Prayer.

Signed, by Order and in Preſence of the Town Council, Adam Gordon, Provoſt.

[Preſented by Major-General Balfour.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Congleton, in the County of Cheſter, beg Leave to expreſs our ſerious Concern at the late outrageous Attack made on your Majeſty's Perſon, and to declare our unfeigned and moſt decided Abhorrence of the Principles from which it proceeded, Subordination and Order being the Life and Security of all civil Society.

Impreſſed as we are with a Love and Reverence for your Majeſty, under whoſe mild Government we enjoy all the Bleſſings of Freedom, we humbly offer our Congratulations to you on your late providential Eſcape; and declare it to be our Prayer, and truſt that the Almighty will continue to be your Shield and Defence againſt all your Enemies, foreign and domeſtic.

We further humbly intreat your Majeſty to be aſſured, that we will on every Occaſion, according to our Power, exert ourſelves with Zeal and Alacrity in Defence of your Majeſty's Dignity, ſo eſſential to our preſent happy Form of Government, and in Support of our Laws, Religion, and unrivalled Conſtitution.

[Preſented by John Crewe, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of Cheſter.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town of Plymouth Dock and Pariſh of Stoke Damerell, moſt humbly approach your Throne with ſincere Congratulations on your providential Eſcape from the moſt violent and daring Attack made on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, on the firſt Day of the Seſſion of Parliament. Regarding the Laws of our Country with a reverential Awe, we canot look upon ſuch a flagrant Violation thereof without the utmoſt Indignation and Abhorrence.

An Offence ſo highly criminal can ſcarcely admit of Aggravation; but if any Thing could add to the Heinouſneſs of the Crime it would be the Time choſen for the Perpetration of it, when your Majeſty was paſſing to and from your faithful Parliament in the full Exerciſe of your Regal Authority.

We avail ourſelves of this Occaſion to renew our Teſtimony of Affection and Attachment to your Majeſty and all the Branches of your Royal Family, to avow our Reſolution of exerting ourſelves to ſuppreſs all tumultuous and ſeditious Meetings, and to aſſiſt the Magiſtracy to the utmoſt of our Power in enforcing Obedience to the Laws of this Country; and alſo to aſſure your Majeſty that we ſhall be at all Times ready to ſtand forth with our Lives and Properties perties in Defence of your Majeſty's Perſon and the Britiſh Conſtitution.

We earneſtly pray that the Almighty may continue to protect your Majeſty from all evil Machinations, and that your Subjects may long enjoy the Bleſſings of your Reign.

Tho. Netherton, Chairman.

[Preſented by Colonel Rolle and J. P. Baſtard, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of Devon.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, Tradeſmen and others, Inhabitants of the Town and Vicinity of Wrexham, beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence, to expreſs our unfeigned Abhorrence of the late wicked and moſt daring Outrage againſt your ſacred Perſon, and to requeſt that the Legiſlature would, in their Wiſdom, deviſe ſome ſpeedy and adequate Means to ſecure your Majeſty from ſimilar Attempts in future, particularly by ſuppreſſing thoſe ſeditious Aſſemblies, which, under Pretence of redreſſing Grievances, evidently aim at the Ruin of our happy Conſtitution.

[Preſented by Sir Watkin Williams Wynne, Bart. Lord Lieutenant of the County of Denbigh.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Yeomen Cavalry of the Town and Vicinity of Wrexham, voluntarily aſſociated, under your Majeſty's Authority, for the internal Defence of the County and Support of the Laws and Conſtitution, beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence, to teſtify our unanimous Abhorrence of the late moſt inſolent and flagitious Attack upon your ſacred Perſon, and humbly to petition that the Legiſlature would ſpeedily deviſe ſome effectual Means for your Majeſty's future Preſervation, and for curbing that licentious Spirit, which, under Pretence of reforming Abuſes, evidently tends to inflame the Minds of the People, endanger the Public Peace, and eventually overthrow our excellent Form of Government.

[Preſented by Sir Watkin Williams Wynne, Bart. Lord Lieutenant of the County of Denbigh.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeſſes, together with the Clergy, and others Inhabitants of the Borough and Pariſh of Wootton Baſſett, in the County of Wilts.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeſſes, together with the Clergy and others Inhabitants of the Borough and Pariſh of Wootton Baſſett, humbly intreat your Majeſty's moſt gracious Acceptance of our ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's Safety from the late atrocious Attempt againſt your ſacred Perſon.

We have beheld with Veneration and Gratitude the Hand of Almighty Providence continually extended to guard your Majeſty's moſt precious Life; and we look up with Confidence to the ſame Power to ſupport your Majeſty and your moſt illuſtrious Houſe in the Government of theſe Kingdoms, on which we are well convinced the Preſervation of our juſt Rights, our Liberties, and our Poſſeſſions entirely depends.

We hold in the utmoſt Deteſtation thoſe fallacious and deſtructive Principles from whence have originated the moſt cruel Attacks on the Safety of our Sovereign, the Permanency of our Conſtitution, and our own Happineſs; and we conſider all thoſe who by any Means endeavour to diſſeminate or encourage ſuch Principles among our Fellow Subjects, as the Enemies of public and domeſtic Peace.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will at all Times be ready to ſtand forth in Defence of your Majeſty and our excellent Eſtabliſhment in Church and State againſt their Violences to the utmoſt Extent of our Lives and Properties.

[Preſented by the Right Hon. J. C. Villiers, Town Clerk of the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, High Steward, Capital Burgeſſes, Recorder, Common Councilmen, Town Clerk, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Borough and Pariſh of Southmolton, in the County of Devon.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, High Steward, Capital Burgeſſes, Recorder, Common Councilmen, Town Clerk and other Principal Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Southmolton, humbly approach your Throne with ſincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy Eſcape, (under the Direction of Providence,) from the daring Outrages offered to your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon at the Commencement of the preſent Seſſion of Parliament; and alſo to expreſs the warmeſt Aſſurance of Attachment to your Majeſty and the Conſtitution which you have ſo faithfully protected.

It is with Abhorrence we behold the continued Attempts of malicious and evil-diſpoſed Perſons to diſturb the Peace and Tranquillity of the Kingdom; and, looking forward with fearful Apprehenſion to the fatal Conſequences of that deſtructive Poiſon which has been infuſed into the Minds of ſome of the lower Claſſes of your Majeſty's Subjects, by the Diſperſion of inſidious and ſeditious Writings, as well as the tumultuous aſſembling together of ill-adviſed and ill-intentioned Men, we further beg Permiſſion to declare our firm and determined Reſolution to enforce whatever Meaſures your Majeſty ſhall, in your Wiſdom direct, to ſuppreſs the one and defeat the evil Deſigns of the other.

When we reflect on the perillous Conſequences which might have been produced by this daring Attempt to violate the higheſt conſtituted Authority, we cannot but feel, with a ſtronger Senſe of Attachment, the many Bleſſings which we have enjoyed under your Majeſty's Government.

That your Majeſty's Reign may be long and proſperous, and that thoſe deluded Wretches, who have daringly attempted to violate your ſacred Perſon, may be diſcovered, and meet with that Puniſhment which the Atrocities of their Crimes ſo loudly call for, is the fervent Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects,

[Preſented by Colonel Rolle, and J. B. Baſtard, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of Devon.]

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Capital and Free Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Liſkeard, impreſſed with the greateſt Duty and Reſpect for your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, approach to congratulate your Majeſty and the Kingdom at large on your Eſcape from the Hands of deſperate Aſſaſſins, aſſembled for the Execution of a daring Attempt on your Majeſty's Perſon, and the Subverſion of the Government of this free Country. Theſe Attempts have hitherto proved fruitleſs; and it is our earneſt Prayer that they may ever prove ſo; and we flatter ourſelves with the Hope, that through the Meaſures now under the Conſideration of your Majeſty's Two Houſes of Parliament, aided by the Zeal and Activity of every good and loyal Subject, the Torrent of Sedition, fed and encouraged by a few evil and deſigning Men, will be effectually checked, and that your Majeſty will ſoon enjoy the Bleſſing of beholding the Ill-informed returning with Duty to your Majeſty, and with Submiſſion to every legal Order of Government.

[Preſented by the Hon. Ed. Ja. Eliot and the Hon. John Eliot, Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Juſtices of the Peace, Freeholders, Commiſſioners of Supply and Heritors of the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright aſſembled, beg Leave humbly to expreſs to your Majeſty our utter Deteſtation and Abhorrence of the late daring Attempt upon your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon, and our moſt cordial Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape. We truſt your Majeſty will conſider it as the Act of a few wicked and deluded Men, for we are ſenſible that no King ever reigned more univerſally over the Love and Affections of his People.

With fervent Prayers for the long Continuance of your Majeſty's moſt valuable Life, we remain your Majeſty's moſt loyal and faithful Subjects.

Signed, by Order and in Preſence of the Meeting,
Walter S. Laurie, Præſes.

Kirkcudbright, Nov. 13, 1795.

[Preſented by Patrick Heron, Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament for the ſaid Stewartry.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Freeholders, Commiſſioners of Supply, Juſtices of Peace, and other Gentlemen of the County of Forfar, in Public Meeting aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Freeholders, Commiſſioners of Supply, Juſtices of Peace, and other Gentlemen of the County of Forfar, in Public Meeting aſſembled, having heard with Aſtoniſhment of the Outrages offered to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, in your Paſſage to and from your Parliament, are eager to come forward and expreſs the Feelings of Sorrow and Indignation which ſuch an atrocious Attempt has excited in the Breaſt of every loyal Subject.

We had vainly imagined that the peculiar Mildneſs of your Majeſty's Government, and the paternal Affection which you have on all Occaſions manifeſted towards your People, had ſo won all their Hearts, that not a ſingle Individual could have been found among them capable of conceiving, much leſs of committing, ſuch flagitious Acts.

It is our earneſt Wiſh, that thoſe Miſcreants may ſpeedily be diſcovered and ſuffer the Puniſhment due to their Crimes; and we hope and truſt that the Wiſdom of Parliament will adopt ſuch Meaſures as to prevent the Repetition of ſimilar Outrages on any future Occaſion.

Signed, by Order and in Preſence of the Meeting, at Forfar, the 14th Day of November, 1795 Years, David Carnegie, Preſes.

[Preſented by David Scott, Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament for the ſaid County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Town Council of Forfar, beg Leave to approach your Throne, to expreſs the deep Senſe of Sorrow and Concern which we feel from the Accounts of the late daring and atrocious Outrageſs offered to your Royal Perſon, in your Majeſty's Paſſage to and from your Parliament at the Opening of the preſent Seſſion.

Conſidering the mild Tenor of your Majeſty's Government, and the Bleſſings which your Subjects derive from the beſt of Conſtitutions, it was little to be expected that any of your People would have diſcovered ſuch a Spirit of Depravity as to be capable of offering ſo audacious an Inſult upon your Majeſty, one of the Branches of that Conſtitution.

With Hearts full of Loyalty, and execrating the Attempts made by thoſe Miſcreants, we ſincerely wiſh that they may be brought to the Puniſhment due to the Magnitude of their Crimes; and that in the Wiſdom of Parliament ſuch Meaſures may be adopted as may effectually prevent ſnch Outrages from being in future coumitted.

That your Majeſty may long continue to reign in Happineſs, and in the Hearts of a free, a proſperous, and united People, and that your Throne may deſcend through many Generations, with undiminiſhed Luſtre, to the Princes of your illuſtrious Family, is our earneſt Wiſh and Prayer.

Signed, in Preſence and by Appointment of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of Forfar, at Forfar, the 17th Day of November, in the Year 1795.

John Watt, Provoſt.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Approved Men, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Andevor, humbly beg Leave to expreſs our Abhorrence and Deteſtation of the daring and atrocious Inſults lately offered to your ſacred Perſon, in proceeding to and from your Parliament, and to congratulate your Majeſty on your happy Eſcape from that imminent Danger.

We moſt devoutly pray, that Divine Providence may continue to guard your Majeſty and the excellent Conſtitution of your Kingdoms againſt your ſecret as well as open Enemies.

[Preſented by Benjamin Lethieullier and William Fellowes, Eſqrs. Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Capital Burgeſſes, Aſſiſtants, Gentlemen, Clergy and Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Tiverton, in the County of Devon.

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Capital Burgeſſes, Aſſiſtants, Gentlemen, Clergy and Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Tiverton in the County of Devon, in the Guildhall there aſſembled, with Sentiments of the moſt reſpectful and affectionate Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, beg Leave to approach the Throne, to teſtify the Deteſtation we feel of the late audacious and ſacrilegious Attack on your Majeſty's Perſon and Authority, and to expreſs our moſt ſincere Congratulations to your Majeſty on your providential and happy Eſcape from the late moſt daring and wicked Inſult to your ſacred Perſon and our free and happy Conſtitution, by a Set of abandoned and profligate Men, whoſe atrocious Conduct we reprobate and deplore. Impreſſed alſo with grateful Sentiments of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's Government, we hope the Wiſdom of Parliament will provide the neceſſary Means for the further and better Preſervation of Order and the Security of your Majeſty's Perſon. And we moſt humbly implore the Almighty long to preſerve to us your Majeſty, in the full Enjoyment of Health and Happineſs, as a Bleſſing to your People and your moſt illuſtrious Family.

Signed, in the Name and by Appointment of the Meeting, this 21ſt of November, 1795.

W. Lewis, Mayor.

[Preſented by Charles Fanſhawe, Eſq; Recorder, accompanied by the Hon. Richard Ryder, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Town.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Conſtable of the Caſtle, Bailiffs, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Town of Cardiff, the Bailiffs, Portreeves, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the ſeveral Contributory Boroughs belonging thereto, within the County of Glamorgan, beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon with the moſt affectionate Sentiments of Reſpect, and to expreſs our Horror and Indignation at the moſt daring Outrage offered to your Majeſty, in your Majeſty's Paſſage to and from the Houſe of Lords.

We regret that a Period has arrived when any Perſon within your Majeſty's Dominions ſhould be ſo daringly wicked as to hazard the Safety of your Royal Perſon, and therein the Hnppineſs of the whole Nation.

With the moſt profound Gratitude to the Supreme Diſpoſer of all Events we moſt ſincerely congratulate your Majeſty on your providential Eſcape from ſuch traitorous Attacks, dangerous to the public Tranquillity, and in Violation of the glorious Conſtitution, of which your Majeſty forms ſo important and neceſſary a Part.

[Preſented by the Hon. Evelyn James Stuart, Repreſentative in Parliament for the ſaid Boroughs, accompanied by William Nicholl, Eſq;]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the Officers and others of the Plymouth Volunteer Corps, with Hearts full of Love, Loyalty and Affection for your Majeſty, and with the moſt zealous Attachment, humbly beg Leave to addreſs your Majeſty, and to teſtify our Abhorrence at the late outrageous and diabolical Attack on your Royal Perſon, and that too at a Moment when going to perform one of the greateſt Functions of the Legiſlature.

That your Majeſty's Virtues and general Love for all your Subjects ſhould not be more known and reſpected is much to be deplored; but it ſhould ſeem, (and we are inclined to think this daring Outrage was) the momentary Reſult of a deluded Mob, ariſing from the baſe Inſinuations and evil Deſigns of the Turbulent and Factious.

Having, with your Majeſty's Royal Permiſſion, voluntarily armed for the Defence of our Town againſt all Deſigns of the Enemy, and in Support of public Tranquillity, we alſo feel it our Duty (as well as from Inclination) that we ſhould, and we do moſt heartily and ſincerely declare, and aſſure your Royal Majeſty, that we are and ever ſhall be ready to lay down our Lives in the Defence and Protection of your moſt ſacred Perſon againſt every traiterous Attempt whatever, and in Support of the Conſtitution as eſtabliſhed at the glorious Revolution.

[Preſented by Colonel Rolle and J. P. Baſtard, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of Devon.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Yeomanry Cavalry, raiſed and appointed under the Direction of your Majeſty's Lieutenant for the County of Somerſet, in the Diviſion of Yeovil and it's Vicinity, beg Leave humbly to approach your Throne with our unfeigned and loyal Congratulations on your providential Deliverance from the late horrid and atrocious Outrage offered to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, aggravated, if poſſible, by the Moment choſen for the Purpoſe, when your Majeſty was in the Exerciſe of the higheſt and moſt important conſtitutional Office.

We ſincerely lament there ſhould exiſt a Diſpoſition ſo nefarious in the Breaſt of the moſt abandoned of your Subjects, and we in the ſtrongeſt Degree deprecate Principles which have for their Object a Violation of our excellent Conſtitution.

We aſſure your Majeſty, with Hearts full of Gratitude for the Bleſſings we enjoy under your mild auſpicious Government, that we ſhall be ready at all Times to exert ourſelves, to the utmoſt of our Power, in our ſeveral Stations and Relations, in the Protection of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and in the Defence of that glorious Fabrick of our Anceſtors the Conſtitution of our Country, which we fervently hope will be tranſmitted entire and unpolluted to Poſterity.

Signed, by Direction of the Corps, and preſented at their Requeſt, by Samuel Daniel, Captain Commandant.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's Corps of Penryn Volunteers, aſſociated for the Protection of our King and Conſtitution, and for the internal Defence of our Country,

Country, feeling a loyal Pride in claiming to rank with the moſt dutiful and affectionate of your Majeſty's Subjects, as well in our Civil as in the Military Capacity your Majeſty has graciouſly permitted us to add thereto, beg Leave, at this momentous Criſis, to approach your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, and to expreſs our unfeigned Sorrow and Indignation at the late daring and atrocious Attack made on your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon, in your Paſſage to and from your Parliament, at the Opening of the Seſſion.

Animated with the warmeſt Wiſhes and Affection for the Safety and Happineſs of an amiable and beloved Sovereign, we moſt ſincerely congratulate your Majeſty on the manifeſt Interference of Providence in your Protection.

After ſo wicked an Attempt, we conſider it not more our bounden Duty to repeat, that the moſt inviolable Sentiments of Zeal, Attachment and Loyalty are deeply engraven in our Hearts towards your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, than we alſo deem it incumbent on us, at ſuch a Period, to renew the Declarations made at our firſt Aſſociation: "That we will, "at all Times, readily and chearfully aſſiſt the Civil "Power in the Suppreſſion of all riotous, tumultuous, "ſeditious, and illegal Aſſemblies, and all traiterous "Conſpiracies and Rebellions againſt the Laws "and Conſtitution of our Country."

At Penryn, in the publick Field of Exerciſe, this 15th Day of November, 1795.

Signed by Deſire, and under Seal of the Corps,

George Chapman George, Major, commanding Penryn Volunteers.

[Preſented by Sir Francis Baſſett, Bart. one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The dutiful Addreſs of the Volunteers of St. Anne, Weſtminſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, the Volunteers of St. Anne, Weſtminſter, beg Leave to expreſs to your Majeſty our Abhorrence of the atrocious Inſult and Violence offered to your Royal Perſon on the firſt Day of the preſent Seſſion of Parliament.

We intreat your Majeſty to believe that we feel ourſelves deeply intereſted in your Majeſty's Safety and Happineſs, and we ſolemnly aſſure your Majeſty, as we have already pledged ourſelves to each other, that we will, whenever lawfully required, uſe the Arms intruſted to us in Defence of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and in Support of the Britiſh Laws and Conſtitution.

Signed, in Behalf of the Volunteers of St. Anne, at their unanimous Deſire, this 18th Day of November, 1795.

Joſ. Jefferſon, A. M. Chaplain.

[Preſedted by B. Higgins, Eſq; Captain Commandant.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

SIRE,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Officers and Privates of your Majeſty's Eaſt Devon Yeomanry Light Dragoons, moſt humbly requeſt your Royal Permiſſion to approach your gracious Throne with the Offer of our moſt ſincere and loyal Congratulations on your Majeſty's late happy and providential Eſcape from the dark Deſigns of the traiterous and miſguided Few, who ſo atrociouſly dared to aſſault your Majeſty's Royal Perſon in your Majeſty's Paſſage to the Houſe of Lords.

Permit us, gracious Sire, to acknowledge the high Senſe we, as your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, entertain of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt mild and benignant Reign; and as we, with Confidence, look up to your Majeſty as the Protector of all thoſe invaluable Rights which our happy and unrivalled Conſtitution ſo fully conveys to every Claſs and Deſcription of your Majeſty's Subjects, we view with Eyes of Jealouſy every Meaſure that can, in the ſmalleſt Degree, affect the Happineſs or Intereſts of your Majeſty or your moſt Royal Houſe; and as, by your Majeſty's gracious Permiſſion, we boaſt the Honor of being, in ſome Degree, the Military Guardians of your Majeſty's Perſon and the Intereſts and Security of our Fellow Subjects, allow us, gracious Sire, to aſſure your Majeſty of our moſt firm Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, your Royal Conſort, and all the other Branches of your Majeſty's moſt illuſtrious Houſe.

J. W. De la Pole, Captain.

[Preſented by Sir John William De la Pole, Bart. Captain.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Troop of Huntingdonſhire Volunteer Cavalry.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Huntingdonſhire Volunteer Cavalry, early aſſociated for the internal Defence of the Kingdom and the Protection of it's eſtabliſhed Laws, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your late providential Eſcape from the atrocious Attempt of deluded Aſſaſſins againſt your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon.

We contemplate with the utmoſt Horror and Indignation an Attack, levelled equally at the Life of our Sovereign and at that happy Conſtitution of which he is the illuſtrious Head.

Convinced, as we are, of the dangerous Tendency of thoſe Harangues, by which ſeditious Demagogues have of late endeavoured to irritate and miſlead the Public Mind, permit us, Sire, with all due Humility, to expreſs our Satisfaction at the Meaſures propoſed by the Wiſdom of your Parliament for the Suppreſſion of an Evil ſo alarming; Meaſures which can only be reprobated or feared by the Abettors of ſuch inſidious Revolutioniſts.

Long may your Majeſty reign the benignant Father of a loyal, united and happy People, who know how to value and protect a Conſtitution which enſures to them the full Enjoyment of every Bleſſing ſocial Man can have.

Signed, for and at the Requeſt of the whole Troop, by John Richards, Captain.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Corps of Halifax Volunteers, being impreſſed with the moſt zealous and affectionate Regard for your Majeſty, and feeling the utmoſt Abhorrence at the late moſt daring and wicked Attack upon your Majeſty's Perſon, beg Leave to offer this our humble Addreſs, to expreſs the Satisfaction we feel at your Majeſty's happy and providential Deliverance; and at the ſame Time to aſſure your Majeſty, that we are ready to ſtep forwards with our Lives and Fortunes to ſupport your Majeſty, and in Defence of the Laws and Conſtitution under which we ſo happily live.

[Preſented by Henry Duncombe and William Wilberforce, Eſqrs. Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of York.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's Royal Wakefield Corps of Volunteers, with Sentiments of unalterable Loyalty to your Majeſty and affectionate Veneration for the Conſtitution of this Kingdom, humbly offer our ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's late Eſcape from the nefarious Attempt of inſidious Traitors on your Majeſty's ſacred Life.

We deplore with Indignation, and execrate ſuch atrocious Purpoſes, and beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our Readineſs to ſacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your Majeſty's Crown and Perſon, and of that ſubſtantial and happy Form of Government which Britiſh Subjects have ſo long enjoyed.

May the Great Diſpoſer of all Events long continue to us the Bleſſing of your Majeſty's Life, and preſerve, to our lateſt Poſterity, the Happineſs of the Britiſh Conſtitution.

Wakefield, Nov. 16, 1795.

[Preſented by John Smyth, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the Borough of Pontefract.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commiſſioned, Non-Commiſſioned Officers and Privates of the Penzance Volunteer Company, beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the late daring Attack made on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, in paſſing to and from your Parliament; an Attempt planned by the moſt wicked and executed by the moſt deluded of your Majeſty's Subjects.

We view with the utmoſt Horror and Indignation the Proceedings of lawleſs and ſeditious Men, who, forgetful of the Duty they owe to the beſt of Sovereigns, and the manifold Bleſſings which they, in common with all other of your Majeſty's Subjects, enjoy under your mild and equitable Reign, and in Defiance of the Laws which alike protect all Perſons in the Enjoyment of Life, Liberty and Property, ſeek to deſtroy the one and to ſubvert the other.

We earneſtly hope that your Majeſty, with the Advice and Aſſiſtance of Parliament, will ſpeedily deviſe effectual Means to reſtrain and ſuppreſs thoſe daring Aſſemblies and Meetings, where Sedition is openly promulgated, and the moſt inflammatory Libels againſt your Majeſty's Perſon and Government are induſtriouſly circulated, with a View to produce Anarchy and Confuſion, and to deſtroy our moſt invaluable Conſtitution.

Forming an armed Aſſociation, under your Majeſty's Permiſſion, for the Defence of this Town and Neighbourhood againſt external Foes, we are no leſs prepared and ready to defend your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and to ſupport the due Execution of the Laws againſt internal Enemies and domeſtic Traitors whenever and wherever your Majeſty ſhall think proper to direct us, being your Majeſty's moſt loyal, dutiful and obedient Subjects.

Penzance, November 17, 1795.

[Preſented by the Earl of Mount Edgecombe.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Loyal Langport Volunteers.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Major Commandant, Officers, and Corps of the Loyal Langport Volunteers, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with the moſt heartfelt Congratulations on the Preſervation of your Majeſty's Perſon, by the Aid of Divine Providence, from one of the moſt violent and outrageous Attempts that ever diſgraced this Kingdom, or any well regulated Community. When we contemplate this horrid Deſign, open yet malicious, daring and yet inſidious, originating from the violent Harangues and artful Miſrepreſentations of the Enemies of Order and Government, and inſtilled into the Minds of a profligate Set of Wretches for the Deſtruction of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and the Subverſion of our Conſtitution, we are ſtruck with Horror at an Attempt ſo nearly accompliſhed, and cannot but feel a Reſentment proportionate to the Inſult on your Royal Perſon, and the Wound given to the Britiſh Character. Having long viewed the Progreſs of dangerous and factious Principles diſſeminated among your Majeſty's Subjects, we feel, at this alarming Criſis, no ſmall Degree of Pleaſure in the ſeaſonable and judicious Interpoſition of the Legiſlature, to ſtem the Torrent of Treaſon threatening to break down the Bounds which Policy, Law, and Nature have preſcribed for the Preſervation of Kings and eſtabliſhed Communities. When we look around us and view all Ranks of your Majeſty's Subjects armed for the Defence of the beſt of Princes, and moſt happy Eſtabliſhment, we are convinced that ſuch Enemies and ſuch Attempts will but rouſe the Spirit of Engliſhmen, and rally around the Standard of Royalty all your Majeſty's loyal Corps, proud to aſſert themſelves the invariable Friends of the Houſe of Brunſwick, and determined to preſerve, or periſh with, their King and Conſtitution. That your Majeſty may through a long Series of Years and proſperous Events ſtill enjoy the pleaſing Gratification of being beloved and adored by all Ranks and Orders of the Community, is the Prayer of your Majeſty's Loyal Corps of Langport Volunteers.

Signed, at the unanimous Requeſt, and on Behalf of the Corps.

J. Chambers, Major Commandant.

St. James's, December 1.

THE following Addreſſes having been delivered or tranſmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, have been by him preſented to the King; which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders and Commiſſioners of Supply for the Shire of Ayr.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders and Commiſſioners of Supply of the Shire of Ayr, publickly aſſembled on the Occaſion, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne with the warmeſt Congratulations on your Majeſty's fortunate Eſcape from the late daring and moſt atrocious Attempts againſt your Majeſty's ſacred Life, and to expreſs the ſtrong Indignation we feel at the unprincipled Inſults offered to your Majeſty on your Way to meet your Parliament.

The uniform Mildneſs of your Majeſty's Reign, ſo peculiarly marked with a paternal Tenderneſs and Love for your People, we fondly hoped might have ſecured your ſacred Perſon from Danger and your Royal Character from Inſult; and we deeply regret that a Period ſhould ever have ariſen which muſt tend to cloud Confidence with Diſtruſt.

In theſe extraordinary Times, Sire, we beg Leave to take the reſpectful Liberty of expreſſing to your Majeſty the Satisfaction we feel at the Meaſures at preſent purſued by the Legiſlature for ſecuring to theſe Kingdoms the Bleſſings of their conſtitutional Monarchy, and we rely with Confidence for their Completion on the Wiſdom of Parliament.

Deeply impreſſed with a high Senſe of Gratitude to Divine Providence for protecting your Majeſty in the Hour of Danger, our moſt ardent Prayers to Heaven are, that your Majeſty may long reign over a free, loyal and happy People; that thoſe execrable Villains, their Accomplices and Inſtigators, if any ſuch can exiſt, who offered Violence to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon may ſpeedily be brought to the condign Puniſhment they deſerve; and that no Repetition of ſimilar Crimes may ever endanger or diſgrace this Nation.

Signed by our Preſes, in our Preſence, and by our Deſire, at Ayr, the 20th of November, 1795.

EGLINTOUNE, Preſes.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, who in former Wars have had the Honour to aſſiſt in defending our King, Country and Government, and who by Nature of that Service are now favoured by your Majeſty with the Freedom of exerciſing our Trades in the Royal Burgh of Perth, and who are formed into a Society under the Appellation of the Perth Friendly Society of King's Freemen, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's Throne with the moſt unfeigned Sentiments of Loyalty and Attachment.

While we in this Country, under your Majeſty's mild and equitable Government, enjoy Bleſſings and Happineſs unknown in other Nations, we lament, with the deepeſt Sorrow, that any of your Subjects ſhould be ſo far loſt to the Principles of Humanity as to make an Attempt upon the Life of a Sovereign, whoſe Reign has been diſtinguiſhed by the moſt unexampled Affection and Regard for his People. We hold in the utmoſt Abhorrence ſuch daring and atrocious Attempts, and the Principles which lead to them; but when at the ſame Time we conſider how unſucceſsful ſuch a daring Attempt has proved, we are led to expreſs our Gratitude to Heaven for that ſignal Interpoſition of Providence; and that that Providence which hath raiſed up, and hath hitherto preſerved your Majeſty as a Bleſſing to our Nation, may long continue it's Protection over your Majeſty's Perſon and Family, is our moſt fervent Wiſh.

Signed, in Name and by Appointment of a General Meeting of the Society, by James Geddes, Preſes of the Friendly Society of King's Freemen, Perth.

Unto the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, the Maſter, Aſſiſtants and Members of the Company of Merchants of the City of Edinburgh, incorporated by Royal Charter, ratified in Parliament, being truly ſenſible of the great Bleſſings and Happineſs which we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and juſt Government, feel ourſelves called upon to expreſs the Sentiments of Horror and Indignation with which our Minds are filled by the daring and atrocious Attempt which was made by evil and deſigning People againſt your ſacred Perſon, when going to meet your Parliament.

We ſhall ever remember with the moſt ſincere Gratitude the Goodneſs of Almighty God in delivering you from the Perils of that Day; and we truſt the ſame kind Providence will, for the Happineſs and Proſperity of theſe Kingdoms, long preſerve your Majeſty to reign over a loyal, free and happy People.

We humbly hope that your Parliament will adopt ſuch Meaſures as may appear to their Wiſdom beſt ſuited for preventing in future whatever may lead to Attempts of ſo wicked and criminal a Nature; and we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will on every Occaſion be ready to ſtand forth in Defence of your Royal Perſon and Government.

In Teſtimony of theſe being our unanimous and heartfelt Sentiments, this Addreſs is ſigned, by Order and in Preſence of the Meeting, by Samuel Anderſon, Maſter.

THE following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted by his Excellency Earl Camden, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King; which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Guild of All Saints or Goldſmiths of Dublin.

Moſt Gracious Sire,

IMPRESSED with the moſt lively Affection to your Majeſty's illuſtrious Perſon, Family and Government, and earneſtly ſolicitous for your Safety and Happineſs, we feel with the deepeſt Concern and Indignation

Indignation the late violent Inſult and Outrage offered to your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon; and animated with an unalterable Loyalty to your Majeſty and Zeal to our unrivalled Conſtitution, the Labour of Ages and the utmoſt Effort of human Wiſdom, we are grateful to Divine Providence, who has bleſſed us with a Sovereign by whoſe mild and juſt Government we enjoy the Bleſſings of that Conſtitution, and look with Confidence to tranſmit it pure and unimpaired to Poſterity.

Filled with theſe Sentiments, we beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our moſt heartfelt Congratulations upon your late moſt happy Deliverance; and, highly ſenſible of this eminent Favour and Bleſſing of Providence, we ſhall continue to ſolicit that Throne of Power to proſper and protect your Royal Perſon, your illuſtrious Family and Government.

In Teſtimony whereof we have cauſed the Seal of our Corporation to be hereunto affixed this 17th Day of November, 1795.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Mayo, beg Leave humbly to approach your Throne to offer to your Majeſty our ſincere Congratulations on your Eſcape from the late outrageous and wicked Attempt on your ſacred Life, and to entreat your Majeſty that the whole Energy of the Government may be called forth to puniſh an Attack not only on your Majeſty's Life, but alſo againſt the Peace, Happineſs, and Proſperity of your Dominions. We beſeech your Majeſty to believe that we are penetrated with juſt and lively Gratitude for the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your mild and firm Government; that your Majeſty may confidently rely on our unfeigned Zeal and unſhaken Loyalty; that the Attempts to diſturb your Majeſty's Government, we have heard of with Abhorrence and Indignation; and that we ſhall ever be ready to manifeſt our moſt devoted and inviolable Attachment in Defence of your Majeſty's Perſon, and in Support of your Government, againſt all internal as well as external Enemies.

Caſtlebar, Nov. 23, 1795.

St. James's, December 1.

THE following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King; which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Town Clerk, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of your Majeſty's ancient and loyal Corporation of Chepping Wycombe, in the County of Bucks,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Town Clerk, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of your ancient Corporation of Chepping Wycombe, cannot refrain from expreſſing our Grief and Indignation at the Violence recently offered to your ſacred Perſon, and our Abhorrence of the Principles by which it was inſtigated. We moſt humbly congratulate your Majeſty, and are thankful to Almighty God for the Preſervation of a Life on which the Safety and Happineſs of theſe Realms, and, in the preſent Criſis, the Welfare of all Europe materially depend.

We cannot help conſidering this outrageous Attempt on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon as an Attack not only on the Perſon of our King, but, through him, upon the Conſtitution of our Country; not only upon the Monarch on the Throne, but on the Monarchy itſelf. Your Majeſty may therefore rely, that your Subjects will ſtand forth in your Defence, not only with all the Zeal and Attachment which your Majeſty's perſonal Character and many Virtues muſt inſpire, but alſo with all that Energy and Determination with which Britons will at all Times ſtand forward in Defence of the Conſtitution of their Country.

It will always be our Pride to take an active Part in maintaining the Laws which protect our Fellow Subjects, and in defending your Majeſty's Life and Dignity againſt the ſeditious and treaſonable Combinations of thoſe who, by inſidious Pretexts, endeavour to delude your Subjects into Acts as deteſtable in themſelves as they are unworthy of a brave and honourable People. We humbly intreat your Majeſty to accept theſe our Congratulations, through the Medium of our Mayor and Juſtice.

SIRE!

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, loyal, and affectionate Subjects, the Officers, Non-Commiſſioned Officers and Privates of the Renfrewſhire Corps of Yeomanry, have heard with the utmoſt Horror and Indignation of the atrocious Attempts made on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon by the Emiſſaries of a deteſtable and traiterous Faction.

We beg Leave to offer our ſincere and cordial Congratulations to your Majeſty and our Country on ſo great and providential a Deliverance, and at the ſame Time to aſſure your Majeſty, that, armed and diſciplined under juſt Authority to evince our Loyalty to our Sovereign, our Attachment to our invaluable Conſtitution, and to preſerve good Order in the County where we reſide, we are determined to employ thoſe Arms with Zeal and Firmneſs for the Purpoſes we were entruſted with them, and againſt all ſuch cowardly Aſſaſſins, and their Abettors and Encouragers.

We ſincerely pray to Almighty God, that your Majeſty may be long preſerved to diffuſe Happineſs over a People grateful for the Bleſſings they enjoy.

Signed, by Appointment of the Corps, at Paiſley, this 19th Day of November, 1795 Years.

M. Fleming, Major.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

SIRE,

IMPRESSED with the trueſt heartfelt Gratitude to Almighty God for his great Mercy to this Nation in the Preſervation of your Majeſty's ſacred Life from a late moſt daring and deteſtable Outrage, a Loyal Troop of Yeomanry humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty their hearty and ſincere Congratulations on your happy Eſcape from ſuch horrid Inſults, and to aſſure your Majeſty of their their Abhorrence of the diabolical Principles which inſtigated them. Firmly attached to your Perſon and Government they are determined to ſupport that Cauſe for which they are united, and to defend to the utmoſt of their Power the preſent happy Conſtitution, and the Life of the beſt of Kings.

Signed on Behalf of the Fifth Troop of Somerſetſhire Cavalry, November 27, 1795.

Philip Hales, Captain.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Town Council of the Town of Greenock, in Special Council aſſembled, beg Leave to offer our moſt ſincere Congratulations to your Majeſty on your Eſcape from the treaſonable Fury of a Band of Miſcreants, who dared to aſſault your Royal Perſon in a moſt baſe and flagitious Manner.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of the profound Horror which we, in common with your other loving Subjects, have felt at the Atrocity of that Outrage, and earneſtly hope for the ſpeedy Detection of the Authors of ſo foul a Crime, that they may be brought to condign Puniſhment.

That the great Diſpoſer of Events may preſerve your ſacred Perſon from a Repetition of ſimilar Attempts; and that your Majeſty may very long continue to ſway the Sceptre over a free, loyal, and happy People, is the moſt earneſt Prayer of, may it pleaſe your Majeſty, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Signed in the Preſence and by Appointment of ſaid Magiſtrates and Council, by our Chief Magiſtrate, at Greenock, the 24th Day of November, 1795. Gabriel Lang.

Whitehall, November 20, 1795.

WHereas it has been humbly repreſented to the King, that late on the Night of Thurſday the 12th Inſtant, or early in the Morning of Friday the 13th Inſtant, Two Guns, loaded with Slugs or other Pieces of Lead, were, by certain evil-minded Perſons, fired into a Bedchamber of the Dwelling-Houſe of —— Pyrke, Eſq; a Magiſtrate for the County of Glouceſter, ſituate at Littledean in the ſaid County, with Intent him the ſaid Mr. Pyrke to murder and kill; which ſaid Slugs or other Pieces of Lead paſſed cloſe to a Bed which was in the ſaid Chamber, and in which the ſaid Mr. Pyrke uſually ſleeps.

His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in the above daring and cruel Act of Violence and Outrage, is hereby pleaſed to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any one or more the ſaid Offenders, (except the Perſon or Perſons who actually ſo fired the ſaid Two Guns or either of them) who ſhall diſcover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo that any one or more of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, His Majeſty does hereby promiſe a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Perſon or Perſons (except as before excepted) who ſhall diſcover and apprehend, or cauſe to be diſcovered and apprehended, any one or more of the ſaid Offenders; to be paid by the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury upon Conviction.

Whitehall, November 24, 1795.

WHereas it has been humbly repreſented to the King, that on the Afternoon of Saturday the 7th Inſtant, as John Sykes, a Soldier in the 3d Battalion of the 1ſt Regiment of Foot Guards, was paſſing through Thames-Street in the City of London to his Quarters in the Tower, he was, without any Provocation on his Part, violently aſſaulted by Three Men, who were unknown ot him, and ſtabbed in his Right Leg, and cut acroſs the Calf thereof with ſome ſharp Inſtrument, of which ſaid Stab and Cut he now lies dangerouſly maimed and wounded; and that upon his endeavouring to ſeize the Man by whom he believed he was ſo wounded and cut, the others again aſſaulted him, and reſcued the Perſon whom he had ſo ſeized.

His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in the above daring and cruel Act of Violence and Outrage, is hereby pleaſed te promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any one or more of the ſaid Offenders, (except the Perſon who actually gave the ſaid Stab and Cut,) who ſhall diſcover his or their Accomplices, ſo that any one or more of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, for a further Encouragement, a Reward of TWENTY GUINEAS will be paid by the Agent of the ſaid Regiment to any Perſon or Perſons (except as before excepted) who ſhall diſcover and apprehend, or cauſe to be diſcovered and apprehended, any one or more of the ſaid Offenders, ſo as that he or they may be convicted thereof,
